1. For further detail, please see <http://www.stthomas.edu/financialaid/undergraduate/cost>.

2. Cost is prior to university scholarships and other financial assistance. 99% of St. Thomas students receive a merit scholarship of at least $20,000, and the average seminarian receives between $25,000 and $30,000. Prospective seminarians are encouraged to use the University's Net Price Calculator for a more individualized cost estimate and financial aid assessment: <https://www.stthomas.edu/netprice>

3. Freshmen are required by the University to have an unlimited meal plan at this cost. Upperclassmen may choose their own meal plan.

4. SJV room cost tracks with the cost of a double in Brady Hall.
